

WASHINGTON, SUNDAY, JANUARY 15, 1905.

Starting Our Great January
SHOE-CLOSING SALE

At 8 o'clock tomorrow morning we begin sacrificing our entire winter stock—every pair of which must be sold before the incoming of spring footwear. Hahn's semi-annual clearing-sales have always been eagerly awaited as the greatest shoe events of the year, but this one offers the greatest inducements of our entire career. Never did we offer such grand styles—such peerless qualities—such really great BARGAINS in every sense of the word.

69c Pays for $1.00 C. B. and American Lady Corsets.

Made of Coutil—High and Low Bust, Medium and Dip Hip.

Owing to slight blemishes—a tiny oil stain on one, a dropped stitch on another—these are stamped seconds, in order to protect the price ($1.00) on this brand, which dealers are compelled to uphold on regular stock. The wear of these Corsets we guarantee to be the equal of any C. B. or American Lady Corset that sells at $1.00, so that those who take advantage of the opportunity will make a clear saving of 31c. We have 60 dozen in all sizes, and they are yours at, each 69c

QUALITY
HOUSEChristian Xander's
Ampelos Punch

It must afford great satisfaction when your guests, after partaking of your social punch, pay you the next morning the compliment that their heads feel as free as if water had been drunk. This desideratum is attained by Christian Xander's Ampelos Punch (stock). This delicious beverage is composed of very old sweet wines (white), with a dash of fine old Cognac and some delicate Old Rum. To serve it it needs simply a block of ice in the bowl, and, to give the mixture sparkle, a bottle of Kaiser Water or other gaseous water. The latter should be added the moment before serving the punch. The viscosity of the basis—Sweet Wines—renders Champagne superfluous. Adorn with fruits in season, avoiding citric fruit, in order not to overwhelm the fragrance of the wines in the punch. Diluted, the mixture is sweet enough to dispense with sugar addition. This avoids fermentation in the stomach and consequent headache. Proportion of dilutive water and ice 2-5 to 3-5 of the punch stock; or ad libitum. Ampelos Punch supersedes the fierce concoctions, called punch, that reek with rum. Ampelos Punch, where once known and used, is always used again as the most delicious and innocent of its class.

Gallon, $2.50; full qt., 65c.
